The Saskatchewan Stock Growers Association (SSGA) has been a steadfast voice for livestock producers since its formation in 1913. Rooted in the values of advocating for producer rights, shaping agricultural policy, and promoting sustainable ranching practices, the SSGA is deeply committed to preserving the legacy and future of Saskatchewan agriculture. Our mission is to foster a vibrant livestock industry while honouring the rich heritage of the western lifestyle and advancing innovative opportunities, including supporting women in agriculture.

On February 27th, 2026, SSGA will host our Semi-Annual Meeting & Honour Scroll Banquet, an event dedicated to celebrating the contributions of Saskatchewan's producers and recognizing excellence within the community.
