SASKATCHEWAN MARSHALS SERVICE (SMS)

What is the SMS and its mandate?

- A specialized provincial police service designed to:
 - Focus on provincial priorities.
 - Detect, disrupt and deter criminal activity.
 - Enforce provincial and federal law.
 - Apprehend high risk and prolific offenders and wanted individuals.
 - Conduct proactive investigations related to gangs, illegal weapons, drugs and agricultural crimes such as cattle theft and more.
 - Provide specialized support to other law enforcement in the province.
 - Enhance police presence in the province with a specific focus in rural and remote communities.

What is the SMS and its mandate?

- Able to respond to emergent and urgent events anywhere in the province (such as the James Smith Cree Nation Incident).
- Able to provide enhanced presence in “hot spot areas.”
- Aid other law enforcement or police services for no cost (unless extreme cases).

What it is not!

- A replacement for any police service of jurisdiction (POJ).
- Designed to provide core policing functions (911 response).
- Designed to operate in a cost recovery model.

The Benefits - SMS Integration and Partnership

- Enhance presence and capacity throughout the province.
- Force multiplier for police services or law enforcement.
- Increased focus and targeting of the priorities of the province.
