

Good Afternoon Chad,

Please find the response below from CCIA.

The Canadian Cattle Identification Agency (CCIA) is an industry-led administrator, designated under the Health of Animals Regulations to collect the data and administer the livestock traceability program for certain regulated species. CCIA does not make decisions, create requirements, or influence the development of Regulations or the policy framework for this program. CCIA provides a service to livestock producers and the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) and will continue to do so to the best of our abilities.

Thank you,

ASHLEY SCOTT
